

We had the privilege of working with James on a project this year.

James showed an incredible commitment to ensuring all our ideas were valued and incorporated into the project. Throughout the residency he was meticulous in scaffolding students and staff with learning not only around artistic explorations but the cultural and sociocultural literary experiences we had set as goals.

It was a pleasure to work with James and witness the absolute professionalism and creativity he brings to his daily work with students and staff.

Sara Scungio, Principal
Mary MacKillop Memorial School, Penola